IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Provisions of the Banking Act 1959 for the protection of depositors generally do not apply to foreign ADIs, including the Bank. For example, depositors with the Bank do not receive the benefit of the following protections:

- Deposits are not covered by the financial claims scheme (FCS) and are not guaranteed by the Australian Government.
- Deposits do not receive priority ahead of amounts owed by the Bank to other creditors.

This means that if the Bank were unable to meet its obligations or otherwise is in financial difficulties and ceases to make payments, its depositors in Australia would not receive priority for repayment of their deposits from the Bank's assets in Australia.

- The Bank is not required to hold assets in Australia to cover its deposit liabilities in Australia.

This means that if the Bank were unable to meet its obligations or otherwise is in financial difficulty and ceases to make payments, it is uncertain whether depositors would be able to access the full amount of their deposit.

Customers for whom the product is likely to be suitable (Target Market)

The Bank expects that most customers in its Target Market will have a connection with Taiwan (the Taiwanese community in Australia or Chinese or other Asian communities).

	Objectives of customers in the Target Market Customers in the Target Market will wish to earn a fixed interest rate on their investment for a set period of time. Needs of customers within the Target Market: Customers in the Target Market will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • have sufficient funds to meet the Minimum Investment amount; • wish to invest in a low risk investment product for a fixed term and do not expect to require access to their funds during the Term of the investment; •

The Bank has reviewed the Mega ICBC Term Deposit Account, including its key attributes, and considers that it is appropriate to satisfy the objectives and needs of consumers in the Target Market because:

- the account has been specifically designed for those customers; and
