credit information previously submitted by the Bank to the National Credit Bureau Co., Ltd. (NCB), in order to facilitate financial service usage without the need for physical documentation.

4. Customers' Rights under the Your Data Project

The Bank hereby informs customers that they have the right to transmit their personal data held by one service provider to another service provider for the purpose of applying for and using financial services. In this regard, service providers must strictly comply with applicable rules and regulations related to personal data protection, information technology security in data transmission, and other relevant laws.

5. Compliance with Relevant Laws and Regulatory Requirements

The Bank confirms that its operations as a data provider under the Your Data Project are conducted in compliance with applicable laws and regulatory standards, as outlined below:

- Compliance with Credit Information Business Operation Laws:

The Bank submits customers' information to the National Credit Bureau Company Limited (NCB) in strict compliance with the duties prescribed under the Credit Information Business Act and within the timeframes required by law. Such duty is not subject to the service user's right to give instructions or to revoke consent.

- Personal Data Protection:

Data management and protection are carried out in accordance with the Personal Data Protection Act (PDPA). The Bank adheres to recognized standards for safeguarding data subject rights and processes personal data strictly under appropriate legal bases.

- Information Technology Security:

The transmission and exchange of data under the Your Data initiative through the NCB membership system are conducted via digital channels with high-level security standards. The Bank's operations are aligned with the Bank of Thailand's information technology risk (IT Risk) supervisory framework to prevent data leakage or unauthorized access.

- Regulatory Standards:

The Bank's operations conform to the requirements governing data transmission mechanisms under the Your Data Project and other relevant regulatory announcements to ensure that customers' rights are exercised lawfully, transparently, and securely.
